

Keihly Moore

mappingofminds.wordpress.com
cargocollective.com/the_spacebetween

Passion for incorporating cultural and ecological sustainability into design across human, building, and societal scales.

P. Zumthor Chapel, K. Moore

Education + Activities

University of North Carolina at Charlotte Master of Urban Design + Master of Architecture (2013)

Graduate Research Assistant with the Design + Society Research Center (August 2010-January 2012)

: Co-presented at the 2011 Urban Affairs Conference: "A Neighborhood Built to Fail"

: Co-facilitated neighborhood engagement and researched the effects of foreclosure "fixing"

Graduate Research Assistant with UNCC's Urban Institute (January 2012 - present)

: Developing Urban Design Toolkit, writing on local planning/design issues: www.PlanCharlotte.org

Iowa State University Bachelor of Architecture + Environmental Studies (2009) Magna Cum Laude

Honors Program (2004-2009)

Semester study abroad (2008): Rome, Italy

Solar Decathlon (2007 -2009): Team leader, Assistant Project Manager

Architecture for Humanity (2006-2009): Project Manager, Group Coordinator

: Initiated recycling efforts with three "Recycling Socks" to encourage participation

CORE-Student Journal of Architecture (2005-2009): Editor (2008-2009), writer, photographer

Experience

The Lawrence Group, Davidson, NC (July-August 2012)

: Intern - graphic design, street sections, code reformatting

Real Architecture Workshop design/build project, Custer, SD, 2011 - team coordinator + scribe

Community Design Charrettes:

SouthEnd Charette: Charlotte, NC, December 2011 - neighborhood facilitation + visioning workshop

The Lawrence Group: Beaufort, SC, March + September 2011, October 2012 - street sections/renderings

Rebuild Iowa Office: Oakville, IA, October 2008 - redesigning flood damaged town

Iowa Architecture Foundation: Oakland, IA, December 2006 - downtown improvement, identity

Waterfall Arts Center for Arts & Design, Belfast, ME, June 2010 - 2 week design/build internship

Passive House Insitute US (PHIUS), Urbana, IL (June 2009-February 2010)

: Assistant program manager - grant writing, web design, residential design

Certified Passive House Consultant (Training June - October 2009, passed exam February 2010)

The Workspace, Ames, IA (November 2004-May 2009)

: Supervisor - open community art studio (woodshop, darkroom, ceramics, painting)

McKellar & Associates, Architects, Mt. Pleasant, SC (May-August 2006)

: Intern - construction documents, hand-rendered presentation drawings, schematic design

Art'chitecture, Duluth, MN (May-August 2005)

: Intern - graphic design, model making, community park beautification project

Awards + Accomplishments

: Honorable Mention in Best Thesis Competition (2013)

: School of Architecture Director's Graduate Research Award for presenting at National Adaptation Forum (2013)

: Selected to represent UNC-Charlotte's thesis program in CriticalMASS Symposium (2013)

: Co-Instructor: Negotiating the Gap-response to Favelas: Architecture of Survival, Projective Eye Gallery, UNCC (2013)

: Organized Charlotte's first PARK(ing) Day tactical urbanism installation (2012)

: UNCC School of Architecture + AIA Charlotte Traveling Fellowship Award - thesis research (2012)

: Coordinator (+ Presenter) of the 4th Annual Passive House Conference, Urbana, IL (2009)

: 2009 AIA Medal - Top-ranking graduating student in the architecture program (May 2009)

: Alpha Rho Chi Medal - "for demonstration of leadership, service, and professional merit." (2009)

: Presentation: "Getting to Know: Castel Romano Roma" Kansas City, MO: EDRA Conference (2009)

: Appeared on National Public Radio's SoundClip feature with Recycling Sock (2007)

Skills + Computer Experience

Hand drawing, Adobe Suite CS5 (Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign), AutoCad 2012, Revit 2013, Wordpress Blogs, Passive House Planning Package (PHPP), SketchUp Pro, iWeb, MS Publisher, MS Office